

Become a Licensed TIFF[©] Provider – 2020 Programme

Facilitators : Liz Jackson - Counsellor and European Trainer in TA and Functional Fluency
Valerie Fawcett - Coach, Trainer and Workplace Mediator

TIFF is a well-researched tool for personal and professional development, based on the Functional Fluency model.

TIFF promotes the self-awareness and understanding that enhances emotional literacy.

TIFF is a valuable tool for consultants, trainers, counsellors, coaches and psychotherapists.

TIFF is being used with leaders and managers, teams and staff groups, teachers and students.

The TIFF Provider training process is designed to enable participants to meet the TIFF licencing criteria so that they can deliver TIFF effectively in their respective professional contexts.

The training is friendly & interactive, consisting of workshops, seminars, discussions, practice, supervision and tutorials, flexibly designed to meet the group's needs

The training itself provides invaluable personal and professional development for participants.

Completion of own TIFF profile & feedback with a licensed Provider, in advance.

Group workshop days 1 & 2	Understand how and why the Functional Fluency Model and TIFF work as they do and the research base. Prepare for providing TIFF profiles	Friday 4 th September & Saturday 5 th September 2020
Supervision and mentoring	Preparation for practice clients, with support and supervision to ensure optimum learning and mentoring to continue learning from own profile.	Between workshops 2 & 3 and between workshops 4 and 5
Group workshop days 3 & 4	Learning from discussion of practice client work and case studies to deepen understanding. Understanding of connections with TA theory. How to use TIFF online.	Friday 23 rd October & Saturday 24 th October 2020
Group workshop day 5	Learning from practice client work, becoming a member of the Functional Fluency Network, Marketing, and ongoing mutual support.	Friday 20 th November 2020

Venue for group workshops – Burford, Oxfordshire, UK.

Total cost - £1,400 (flexible payment arrangements are available)

For more information please, contact - Liz Jackson - lizannjack@gmail.com